4. Imposition of Penalties / Interest on outstanding debits & margins

The client is required to pay all amounts due to the stock broker on its due date. The amount due to broker shall include all type of Margin and Pay-in-obligation/Settlement Obligation on account of any other reason. Client is required to meet its dues to the Trading Member on account of various obligations like Margins & Settlement. These obligations if not paid in time, are met by the Trading Member to the Exchanges / Clearing Corporations / Clearing Members and is construed as funding on which interest would be applicable.

In case the client does not pay the amount due on time, the stockbroker shall charge Interest on outstanding debits & margins upto the rate of 2% per month on the daily outstanding value or at such rates as may be determined from time to time by the stock broker. Interest will be charged from the time it become due till the time obligation is cleared by the client, on the basis of clear credit available in the account. The objective of charging such a interest- is to force a client to clear their dues on time.

The Client is hereby informed that, we as a Stock Broker are accepting deposits (towards margins) in the form of Cash deposits / Exchange approved securities / Exchange defined liquid scrips in any one form or combination thereof. Value of non-cash component would be arrived after deducting applicable Value at Risk percentage, as prescribed by Exchanges / Clearing Corporation from time to time. So the deposits may comprise of the cash component and non-cash component (after applicable hair cut). Further, client is informed that, Exchange accepts margins from a Trading Member in such form where maximum benefit of non-cash collateral is given to the extent of cash component deposited.

Depending upon the total deposits given by the client, we may be providing exposure to the client as per RMS policy. Resultant margin requirement should be cleared by the client within prescribed timeframe. Margins can be collected from client both in cash and non-cash component and any shortfall in fulfilment of margin requirement will lead to charging of interest. Client is hereby informed that, we shall be computing interest as under –

- If client has made the deposits partially in Exchange Approved Securities and partially in Cash and has a margin requirement, then maximum benefit of Exchange Approved Securities (with higher hair cut) would be considered only upto 50% of margin requirement after adjusting available cash component. Therefore, any shortfall in the above explained norm will lead to charging of interest on such shortfall value. This interest is charged as we had to deploy our own funds / securities to meet the shortfall with Exchanges.

Clearing Corporations are reviewing the list of such approved securities on periodic basis and are making the changes from time to time. Hence, clients are requested to refer such list and place /
